

Proclamation

by

Steven L. Beshear
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

- WHEREAS, A spirit of volunteerism can inspire, equip and mobilize an entire community to take action that changes the world; and
- WHEREAS, Volunteers can connect with local community service opportunities and organizations that are at the center of social change, discovering their power to make a difference while realizing that government by itself cannot solve all of our nation's social problems; and
- WHEREAS, The giving of oneself in service to another empowers both the giver and the recipient; and
- WHEREAS, Kentucky's volunteers are a great treasure, vital to our future as a caring and productive nation; and
- WHEREAS, During this week, through the performance of service projects and recognition of volunteers' commitment to service, Kentuckians demonstrate that we can come together to make a difference;

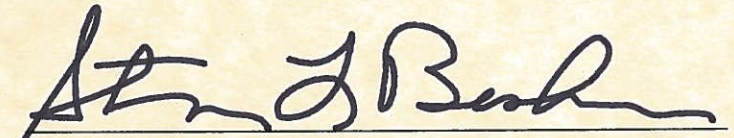

NOW, THEREFORE, I, STEVEN L. BESHEAR, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim April 12-18, 2015, as

KENTUCKY VOLUNTEER WEEK

and urge my fellow citizens to volunteer in their respective communities.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort the 18th day of March, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Fifteen and in the 223rd year of the Commonwealth.

STEVEN L. BESHEAR

ALISON LUNDERGAN GRIMES
SECRETARY OF STATE
